Middlesex County Chiefs of Police Partner with MCFOODS

Milltown Chief of Police, Brian Knelle, announced his support of the Middlesex County Food Organization & Outreach Services (MCFOODS) today. "The Milltown Police Department will be partnering with the all of the police departments in Middlesex County to help stock food shelves for those in need in our County".

Food Collection Bins have been distributed by the Middlesex County Improvement Authority and are available to receive donations at Milltown Borough Hall. Freeholder Deputy Director Charles E. Tomaro recently stated, "Our Local Police Departments are to be commended for establishing this partnership with MCFOODS", "I appreciate their dedication and commitment to impacting the lives of our neighbors in need".

For further details on MCFOODS, hosting a food drive or participating in our upcoming events, visit www.mciauth.com or call MCFOODS at 609-655-5141.
